

2020 ANNUAL REPORT

RESEARCH, AWARENESS, SUPPORT

"I wanted to thank [LCBF] for their generous gift of cards for gas and medicine. This means so much to my family and has helped so much during my treatments. I have two fewer things to worry about."

- Lorena M

"It is so refreshing and breathtaking to have something lifted from your life. All of you at LCBF are angels to so many and I just wanted to say thank you again and you are appreciated."

- Roderica L

"I'm so thankful for [LCBF]. Without their help, I would have never made it to my treatments."

- Myrtle S

"It lifted a weight off of my shoulders. It just wasn't about the assistance, it was about basic needs. I cried and prayed every night for help for my children and I. It meant a lot to me to know that someone who understands me and really cares was there. From the bottom of my heart, I really thank you."

- Kimberly A

ABOUT LAURA

In 2009 Laura Crandall Brown passed away at the age of 25 from ovarian cancer. Her loving and courageous spirit inspired her friends and family to create the Laura Crandall Brown Ovarian Cancer Foundation to honor her life, memory, and vision of helping others. Today, the Laura Crandall Brown Foundation works to fulfill a threefold mission: offering hope through early detection research of ovarian cancer, empowering communities through gynecologic cancer awareness, and enriching lives through support.
